LAMPOST
EDUCATION INITIATIVE

"It is important for us to support the Lamppost Education Initiative because it's for us. Its knowledge of our tradition, knowledge of our Deen right here accessible for us"

Ustadha leasha Prime

"I greatly appreciate and value the scholars that contribute through Lamppost that use this as a platform to not only impart education but some critical thinking to our community as well"

Shaykh Abdul Nasir Jangda

"Lamppost has started an amazing initiative and that initiative is to support and make accessible the knowledge of indigenous American scholars"

Imam Zaid Shakir

The Lamppost Education Initiative (Lamppost) is a non-profit 501c3 charitable dedicated to Islamic education for English-speaking Muslims. Lamppost provides a window into the rich Islamic tradition through the eyes of contemporary American Muslim scholars, intellectuals, activists, and leaders. We offer to the public: live and pre-recorded webinars, classes, books, essays, and onsite enrichment programs dealing with the topics of Islam, Muslims, and the socio-cultural dynamics of American society. Our contributors offer expert analysis of current events which affect Muslims in the West as well as offerings in the classical Islamic disciplines.

EDUCATION INITIATIVE

On the weekend of April 19th, 20th, and 21st, The Lamppost Education Initiative (Lamppost) will be launching our Second Annual Black American Muslim Conference in Atlanta, Ga at the Georgia World Congress Center. This conference is concerned with discussion and education about the history, plight, perspectives, diversity, and contributions of the Black American Muslim population in North America. Your support will enable us to highlight the insights of some of the foremost Muslims scholars in America while simultaneously showcasing your organization or business. There is a great deal of excitement about this upcoming conference. We have three sponsorship options with the following benefits for your organization.
